Checklist for applicants

Lodgement of a Late Application for Conversion Practice Complaint to be Heard

This form can only be used if you made a conversion practice complaint to the Human Rights Commission (the Commission) and you were given a Conversion Practice Referral Statement or Final Report but did not require the Commission to refer your complaint to the Tribunal within 60 days.

☐ Late Application for Conversion Practice Complaint to be Heard form (available at www.acat.act.gov.au) has been correctly filled out including:

- Your name and full contact details, including email address are completed
- The circumstances preventing your complaint being referred to the Tribunal within 60 days are clearly identified
- A copy of the referral statement or final report from the Commission is attached
- The correct number of copies of the application form and attachments have been prepared: one for each party and one for the Tribunal
- You have signed and dated this form.

☐ If applicable, General Power of Attorney or Authority to Act for a Corporation form has been completed (available at www.acat.act.gov.au) to be lodged with the application.

Advice to applicants

1. There is no application fee for this matter.
2. The contact details provided will be used by ACAT to communicate with you. You should ensure your mail, telephone and email are secure and that you check them regularly for information about your matter.
